SUPPORT COURT PARTICIPANT ORIENTATION PACKET

The United States District Court for the District of Connecticut has developed a Support Court Team to provide support and structure to participants who are in recovery or struggle with drug and alcohol addiction to assist them in achieving lifelong sobriety. We will connect participants with treatment, employment, educational resources, and pro-social organizations in the community. The Support Court Judges will address participants' behavior through meaningful incentives and timely sanctions. The Team, recognizing the nature of substance addiction, will treat participants with dignity and respect, to promote a rehabilitative atmosphere that empowers participants to lead law-abiding lives.

WELCOME TO SUPPORT COURT!

We are pleased that you have chosen to participate in the Support Court. Your commitment begins now. Total participation is vital. We want to assist you in your recovery and encourage you to improve your quality of life.

We intend to assist you in completing a program of effective substance abuse treatment. We use graduated phases to encourage you to succeed. You are not alone. Other people who are in recovery will also assist you in developing a lifestyle that is free from the use of drugs and alcohol.

This handbook is a guide that contains information that you will need to successfully complete this program. We encourage you to read it and to share it with your family and friends so that they can support you on your road to recovery.

The answers to most of your questions concerning this program are in this orientation packet. If you have any other questions, please do not hesitate to ask your probation officer, treatment counselor or any Support Court Team Member. We wish you every success in this program.

Support Court Works!

Professionally yours,
The Support Court Team

INTRODUCTION

The Support Court Team works with people who have substance abuse problems. If you participate in this program, your quality of life may drastically improve. This orientation packet covers information about Support Court. After reading it, you should have a good understanding of what we expect. As a participant, you should follow the instructions given to you by your probation officer, treatment counselor, and other team members, including the Support Court Judge. You should consult as needed with representatives of the Federal Defender's office.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Our Support Court program is a supervised, comprehensive treatment program for substance abusers under federal pretrial and post-conviction supervision. The program combines the efforts of the U.S. District Court, the U.S. Attorney's Office, the Federal Defender's Office, community treatment providers, and community support groups. This voluntary program involves weekly attendance in Support Court meetings before the Support Court Judge and Support Court Team, community supervision, substance abuse treatment counseling, random drug testing, and pro-social community activities, such as attending meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, or other secular or faith-based groups. The program length, determined by each participant's individual progress, will be at least one year. If you are eligible and choose to participate in this program, you must be willing to commit to the entire program. For post-conviction participants, should you successfully complete the Support Court requirements and conditions, you may be eligible for up to one year off your term of supervision. For pretrial participants, the Court may take your successful participation in Support Court into consideration in your criminal case.

WHO MAY ENTER SUPPORT COURT?

Support Court is open to participants who are on pretrial release, probation or supervised release and have been identified as individuals who would benefit from the level of treatment and supervision offered through the phases of Support Court. Pretrial participants include persons who have pleaded guilty or, with the approval of the U.S. Attorney's Office, persons who have no more than two prior felony convictions and who have yet to plead guilty.

Candidates will generally not be eligible for Support Court participation if they meet any of the following criteria, subject to case-by-case consideration by the Support Court Judge after considering the views of the Support Court Team:

- a history of arson
- on supervision for a sex offense, have a history of a sex offense, or a pending sex offense charge
- significant mental health issues (may be considered if medication compliant)
- serious medical issues that would prevent participation or be disruptive to the group process
- serious firearm offense
- history of felony crime of violence within the last 10 years

Support Court participants must:

- have a verified history of substance abuse
- have a desire to overcome substance abuse
- be in need of drug education, substance abuse counseling and drug use monitoring
- be supervised by the U.S. Probation Office, and subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut

THE INTAKE PROCESS

The Support Court team determines whether potential participants meet the entrance requirements for the program. Your probation officer discusses with you the program so that you can decide if you would like to volunteer to become a participant. The Federal Defender will review the Support Court Participant's Agreement with you. You are required to observe at least two meetings of Support Court before admission to the program. A substance abuse screening and a review of information in your pretrial file, your presentence report, or your probation/supervised release file will be completed to determine if you have a substance abuse problem. The Support Court Judge (with input from the Team) makes the final decision concerning program eligibility. Expect to start upon acceptance into the program and signing of the participant agreement. After you are deemed acceptable you will meet with the Federal Defender and sign the participant agreement at the beginning of your first Support Court participant meeting, after a brief colloquy by the Support Court Judge.

SUPPORT COURT ORIENTATION

We want you to know what is expected of you while you participate in this program. Therefore, the following people will be involved in telling you about the program: an attorney, a treatment counselor, a probation officer. All of the paperwork that you need for orientation is contained in this packet. Please ask questions that will help you to understand. We want you to succeed!

COURT SUPERVISION AND BEHAVIOR

As a Support Court participant, you will be required to regularly attend Support Court meetings. Missing Support Court meetings may result in termination from the program or failure to advance in the program. At or before each meeting, the Judge will be given a report from the Team concerning your progress, which will include drug testing results, attendance, progress in treatment, supervision comments, etc. The Judge will ask you questions about your progress and discuss any problems you may be experiencing. If you are doing well, you will be encouraged to continue the good work and progress in your sobriety. If there are problems, the Judge may impose sanctions – even short periods in jail.

You must speak directly with the Support Court Judge concerning your progress. You are responsible for your own behavior. Please be on time and dress appropriately. Everyone should remain seated and quiet while in Support Court unless asked to stand and speak. Address the Judge with respect. Participants must remain in Support Court for the entire meeting unless approved to leave early. Cell phones must be turned off.

GOALS

Although your treatment counselor and probation officer will work with you to set individualized goals, the following goals will apply to nearly every participant.

1. Remain free of drugs and alcohol by living a drug-free lifestyle
2. Develop a law-abiding pattern of living
3. Improve employability through on-the-job-training, vocational training and education
4. Participate in pro-social community activities such as AA and NA
5. Improve social skills
6. Enhance self-esteem and personal motivation
7. Learn relapse warning signs and develop a personal relapse prevention plan
8. Accept responsibility for financial obligations and learn budgeting and financial skills
9. Learn and apply better ways of coping with the problems that life offers
10. Develop and improve time management skills

SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT - WAIVER

Federal and state law protects your privacy. You will be asked to sign a waiver authorizing the release of information, which will include substance abuse and mental health history and legal and medical information, to the Support Court Team. In addition, the Support Court is open to the public, so there might be occasions when the public will hear information relating to your treatment.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT – GROUP COUNSELING

You will be required to attend treatment counseling sessions and education classes that must not be missed unless properly excused in advance or in the event of a true emergency. Treatment groups are a major component of this program. Arrive on time, participate fully and remain until the event is over. Otherwise, you may be counted as absent and may lose Support Court credit. Follow all of the treatment provider’s “house rules.”

The following actions will not be tolerated:

1. Violence or threats of any kind to staff or other participants
2. Use and/or possession of drugs
3. Belligerent behavior or acts of vandalism to property
4. Possession of any type of weapon
5. Sexual harassment

SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT AND SUPPORT GROUPS

Involvement in twelve-step support groups like Narcotics Anonymous (NA) and Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) or other community-based secular or faith-based organizations are important to your recovery. The Support Court requires you to attend pro-social community activities and to provide written verification that you are doing so. You should get to know the people at these meetings who are recovering from addiction and living a drug-free lifestyle. Developing this support system may be critical to a long-term successful recovery. Your treatment counselor and probation officer will assist you to link up with these groups if necessary.

PROBATION SUPERVISION

Participants must report to Probation as instructed. You must abide by all of the terms of your Support Court Participant's Agreement. Be prepared to undergo drug testing before or after Support Court meetings in addition to any time you meet with probation or treatment provider. You must notify your probation officer if you are arrested or have contact with law enforcement. You must immediately notify Probation and the Court if you change your address. If you are unable to report as required, inform your probation officer concerning your problem. Unless it is a true emergency, you will not likely be excused. Working closely with your probation officer should help you to successfully complete this program.

TREATMENT FEES & COURT RELATED FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Co-payment for treatment is determined on a case-by-case basis. Program participants with court-related financial obligations such as child support or restitution are expected to make payments on a regular schedule. You may be required to show proof of payments to your probation officer. If you cannot make a payment, discuss your situation with your probation officer in order to make other arrangements. Failure to make scheduled payments while in this program may delay your progress.

CONSTRUCTIVE USE OF TIME, EMPLOYMENT & EDUCATION

As you advance through the program, you will be required to maintain steady employment, perform community service or participate in school full time. A combination of the two is acceptable also. It is important for you to use your time constructively. Idleness and boredom are not your friends. Probation will verify your employment by visiting you on the job. Inform your employer about your participation in Support Court because you may be required to attend court during work hours. You must inform Probation right away if your employment or educational status changes. Although we will work with your schedule as much as possible, you cannot miss Support Court, group sessions or treatment appointments due to conflicts with your work schedule.

DRESS APPROPRIATELY

Program participants will be required to wear appropriate clothing while participating in the program. Men must wear pants, shirt and shoes. Women may wear pants, skirts or dresses of appropriate length with a modest blouse. Women should not wear see-through blouses, midriff tops, tube tops, bathing suit tops or halter-tops. No hip hugger pants or low-riding pants. Clothing bearing drug or alcohol related themes, promoting, or advertising alcohol or drug use is prohibited. No gang colors or clothing and no gym clothes are permitted. Sunglasses and hats may not be worn inside the courtroom or to any Support Court related meetings. You may be asked to change your clothes if staff notices that you are wearing clothing that is not appropriate. Speak with your probation officer if you have any questions concerning what clothing is appropriate to wear while participating in the program.

DRUG TESTING - “A POSITIVE IS A POSITIVE”

Using prescription drugs and certain over-the-counter drugs can lead to your relapse. We understand that on rare occasion you may need to take prescription and over-the-counter drugs. However, you will be required to advise your physician of your prior drug history and Support Court involvement and allow your probation officer to confirm this notification.

In this program, you will be drug tested frequently. Instead of trying to catch you when you use prohibited substances, we would prefer to assist you in remaining free of drugs and/or alcohol. Even though we strive to use the best testing methods possible, no drug testing system is perfect. This program will only be successful for you if you let it. Do not sabotage yourself by trying to figure out how to beat the test.

Failing to provide a urine sample upon request will be counted as a positive drug test. Tampering with a patch or test, using adulterants, and smuggling in another person’s urine will be dealt with in a much more severe manner. Experience has taught us that making exceptions to this policy usually enables addicts to continue to use drugs. We are against that. Your success in this program depends on you holding yourself accountable for your own actions. We want to help you to be honest. You will not likely be kicked out of the program because you use drugs. Instead, you will be held accountable while you continue to participate in the program. We are very interested in assisting you to live a drug-free lifestyle. We want you to spend your time working on recovery instead of arguing drug-testing results. Therefore, when a participant tests positive on a drug test, the program’s position is a positive is a positive.

DRUG TESTING – NO ALCOHOL - ALCOHOL IS A DRUG

Alcohol is a drug. You must not consume alcohol. You are not permitted to enter an establishment whose primary purpose is to sell or distribute alcohol. It may be smart for you to abstain from use of tobacco or caffeine also. You may be subject to breathalyzer testing.

DRUG TESTING - YOUR DOCTOR AND PRESCRIPTION DRUGS

You should follow the medical advice of your doctor. We encourage you to receive medical treatment from a qualified doctor. In fact, one component of recovery is to properly address medical issues and physical ailments. It is a good idea to get a physical examination by your doctor on a regular basis. We do insist that you honestly disclose your substance abuse history to your doctor.

You must register any prescription or over-the-counter medication with your treatment counselor before taking the medication except in a life-threatening situation. In such a case, inform your treatment counselor as soon as possible after taking such medications. You may not be allowed to enter the program if you are using a mood-altering prescription drug or one that will test positive on a drug test. You may become eligible for the program if you stop using the medication under the supervision of your doctor, or if your doctor prescribes another medication that is not mood-altering and will not test positive on a drug test.

If you must briefly take a prescription medication that will test positive on a drug test, your clean day count may be suspended while you are taking the medication. You should not have to take this type of prescription very often. Maintaining sobriety can be hard if you have to take mood-altering drugs, even for a little while. Pain medication can be a big problem. Many prescription drugs are effective, not mood-altering, and they will not test positive on a drug test. Most antibiotics fit into this category.

INCENTIVES AND SANCTIONS

We believe that the use of incentives and sanctions will help you to live a law-abiding, drug-free lifestyle. The Team looks for reasons to encourage you to accomplish your goals.

We also use sanctions if necessary, to help you to change your behavior in meaningful ways. Sanctions are intended to help keep some people from going to prison. The use of incentives and sanctions, even brief incarceration, can motivate you to succeed. If you have any ideas concerning a good incentive or sanction, please tell us. We may decide to use your suggestion.

If you are required to complete additional treatment requirements like extra groups or residential treatment, we understand that it might feel like a sanction to you. Please know that we do not intend for treatment responses to be sanctions.

Post-conviction Support Court graduates are eligible for up to one year off their supervised release term. Pretrial graduates may be eligible for favorable consideration in their criminal cases.

TERMINATION/SUSPENSION FROM SUPPORT COURT

We would like all participants to remain in the program until they are able to live a law-abiding, drug-free lifestyle. Therefore, we do not want to terminate you from the program until we have tried very hard to assist you. If you do not complete the requirements of the program, the Support Court Judge, based on the recommendations of the Team, decides if you will be terminated from Support Court. Typically, expulsion from the program may occur as a result of repeated failures to participate in treatment, repeated failures to complete all program requirements, lack of effort, repeated unexcused absences, numerous positive drug tests, tampering with a drug test or new criminal charges.

Termination from the Support Court program will typically result in a return to traditional supervision. Participants must understand that their participation in Support Court does not preclude the sentencing Court from revoking supervised release or pretrial release.

GRADUATION

You will be eligible to graduate from the program upon approval of the Support Court Judge who will base the decision on your progress and input from the Team.

To graduate, you will be required to advance to the program's fourth phase and complete the phase four requirements. You should be able to show how Support Court has positively influenced your life. Graduates will be honored at a special ceremony. Your family can be invited to join you as the Judge congratulates you on successfully completing the Support Court Program and achieving your goals. Depending on your particular case, you may receive up to a one-year reduction in your term of supervision if you are a post-conviction participant. If you are a pre-sentencing participant, the sentencing court may take your Support Court participation into consideration in your criminal case.
